

Now Bobby Driscoll Is Junior Romeo

By Virginia MacPherson.

HOLLYWOOD (UP) — Movie colony Romeos could take a few lessons from Bobby Driscoll, a 12-year-old wolf who's just discovered girls. The way he loves 'em and leaves 'em makes sissies out of the big boys.

This Driscoll guy is a fast worker. He has, he'll tell you without a blush, had so many girls in the last few months he can't remember "half their names."

BOBBY DRISCOLL

Errol Flynn's not the only actor who goes to Europe and finds romance. Bobby went to England to make "Treasure Island" for Walt Disney and cut a pretty wide swath with the lollipop set.

"I had lots of girls here when I left," he said. "But one was my favorite." She wrote me too many letters, though.

"It takes me a long time to write a letter. About an hour and a half, I guess. The minute she got it she'd answer right back.

"And there I was—owing another letter right away. So I just dropped her. There was a pretty girl there in London, anyway. Besides, she was closer."

Someone New.

Bobby came home from London a week or so ago. And is he being true to his English sweetie? He is, like fun. He's already found a new cutie for this month. And it isn't one of the girls he left behind, either.

She's 11-year-old Kathy Beaumont, also under contract to Walt Disney. And that makes things real cozy.

"I'd never met her," Bobby said. "But I heard about her. And when I got home I had some of the boys introduce me. She's a blonde. She came over here from London a few years ago and she has a British accent."

"Romeo" Driscoll brought her around and, for the record, there is nothing wrong with his 12-year-old eyesight. This Kathy is a beauty—with honey-colored curls and big blue eyes.

Canasta Too.

For fun, they said, they play Canasta. And if you think that's too grown-up for the younger generation that just shows how much you know. This is the age of the "Jet Set".

"I've even smoked," Bobby says. "Cornsilk cigarets. They made me sicker'n a dog. Never again.

He sneaked a little beer too. With the same results. Now he's sticking to ice cream parfaits.

"Smoking!" says Kathy with a lady-like sneer. "I think it's silly. All you do is breathe in and breathe out. What fun is that?"
