My Dearest Pat;

I believe your letter was delayed at the Post Office for I received it only today. It sure is nice to know you miss me though.

Since there's no hope for Dixie and Dick do you think she likes "Ship"? It's all right for her to eye the life guards but whenever you get the urge just look at my picture. Don't get the wrong idea though, I don't want you to stay at home. It's alright to go out with "Woody" but just remain "a perfect Angel". If you don't think Jim telling you every-thing you can ask Dusty when we get back. To tell you the truth I hadn't even talked to a girl until Monday. Monday Girlscouts came up here to camp but I didn't do a thing. They left today. "Mouse" is leaving for Boise Idaho tomorrow so it will be lonely around here without him.

The two weeks I've been up here I've only heard "Jim in Love Again" once and I haven't heard "Them There Eyes" at all.

You can read some of them to my m but censor them first!

All the neighbors consist of - The McCarrys, boys from the fire post, the boys from the lumber The McCleans, and the Janes. There's a lot of love in each family.

My Mom has probably told you this tell you again anyway. Last Sunday I was feeding a horse named "Dee". Dee had been sick all day and was sick of it. So at the day when I saddled him started by hard, he decided to get rid of me. I say he did it was by galloping and suddenly turning sharp to the left and going straight ahead.

nes rushed me to the doctor because I thought I had broken my jaw. The doctor gave me anti-tetanus shots, took x-rays and found it was only dislocated. Jim is good as new now though.

Nothing you on my mind all the time since I can leave my arms and how much Jim in love with his one to my Mom. Huh?

Yours always -

Bob
