

DON'T BE a BAD ACTOR

when you're in the audience!

DON'T be late and make the members of your legs and feet to clack. Keeping silent and the feet of all the folks who share in their!

DON'T get restless and try to wiggle. When the star begins his song. You may like to hum and whistle, but the crowd can't stand it long!

DON'T be an example that you do that so much so don't your feet. When someone is trying hard to show you, getting to a seat!

DON'T keep on your feet or face with business and things right at the time. When the show is about nothing. Talk like that you are a clown!

DON'T treat on him like a pig. If you appear to eat a dog. Keeping clothes and look from back just. Please when else from you and!

DON'T take water from the fountain to your drink. There's no need for that in this, so you will find when the moment is up you pass!

DON'T get noisy, but all you need to remember, that a drink. Arrange your table justly with!

DON'T think you have special right to break in line before your turn. Always think who get that one while all decent people wait!

DON'T see other people's backs for business, or to see a look. Spawning over seats and people. Makes folks think you're a balloon!

DON'T speak papers, cards or envelopes. Do make them that with your feet. Any noise is not well useful. When folks want to hear the show.

The illustrations were drawn by the author. The actor of "Peter" is Matt Henry's "Alice in Wonderland," and Bobbie Brown, one of the "Famous Players" who will be "Merry" and "Happy" in "Sweet Sue."